

What's Happening at #DokUNfest 2018

Theme 2018: Reflection

The festival opens at 20:00 on 03 August with the opening ceremony to showcase the films offered at this year's festival.

#Installation of SDG Mirrors - Reflection on SDGs

When: 4 August (Sat.) to 11 August (Sat.)

Where: Bulevardi Deshmoret e Kombit

Two mirror installations are taking place in the heart of Prizren, featuring reflections on all 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) within Kosovar society. Two other mirrors will be separately installed:

Specific mirror installation highlights the gender identity and issues related.

The final reflection is a mirror on identity and cultural heritage protection.

The installations are designed to have participants review current situations and rethink their roles in certain issues in Kosovo.

#Installation of SDG Wheel Logo

Right above the mirror installations is our SDG Wheel, demonstrating all 17 SDGs. Bird's eye view and photos taken during the day from the fortress will have a unique view of the SDG wheel over UN set.

#Bunkai and Martial Arts Demonstration

When: 4 August (Sat.) to 11 August (Sat.)

17:00-18:30

Where: Near the UN installation

A group of students from a Karate club in Prizren will demonstrate various techniques through the Bunkai methodology. Don't know what Bunkai is? Come and talk to these inspiring young athletes and enjoy their amazing performances.

#Vox populi: UN Street Interviews

When: 04 August (Sat.) to 11 August (Sat.)

Where: Near the UN installation

“You wouldn’t know it is real until it is close enough to you.” The UN Street Filming Team is bringing you stories from the victims of Gender-Based Violence, environment and disaster reduction and it is time for you to stand up and raise your voice.

#Installation of Air Quality Monitors

When: 04 August (Sat.) to 11 August (Sat.)

Where: BarAca

Two air quality monitors are placed in an indoor café and outdoor space respectively while the data is constantly updated on Dokufest’s website. The installation aims to compare air quality in two different areas and raises the awareness of indoor pollutants.

#Screening of the Documentary “Not Your Property!” and Panel Discussion

When: 09 August (Thr.) 17:00-18:50

Where: Hammam

Produced by the UNMIK crew, the documentary “Not your property!” features Gender-Based Violence and women’s property rights in Kosovo. After the screening, join the panel discussion on domestic violence led by UN WOMEN and share your opinions.

#UN Reception

When: 09 August (Thr.) 19:00

Where: Restaurant “Ambient”

Don’t miss this opportunity to meet our diverse team, learn more about what we do in Kosovo and introduce yourself to us.
