

FOOD AND AGRICULTURE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FOR A VOLUNTEER PROGRAMME IN PRISTINA

The Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) of the United Nations leads international efforts to defeat hunger and to achieve food security for all and make sure that people have regular access to enough high-quality food to lead active, healthy lives. With over 194 member states, FAO works in over 130 countries worldwide. We believe that everyone can play a part in ending hunger.

The FAO Regular Volunteer Programme provides opportunities for individuals to contribute their volunteer actions, where suitable, to support the work of FAO in connection to FAO Strategic Objectives and UN Sustainable Development Goals. The Programme proactively and strategically mobilizes broad-based volunteer services of citizens of the member nations to contribute to end hunger, malnutrition and food insecurity.

FAO project office in Pristina is looking for qualified candidates interested to work in the following technical areas: Programme development, Agriculture, Rural Development. Duties of the volunteer will specifically include (but may not be limited to) the following:

- Provide support to the collection, consolidation and maintenance of information and data on food, crops, livestock, forestry and fisheries in Kosovo and monitor changes in national policies and programmes affecting the agricultural sector;
- Provide support to the preparation of technical, economic and policy studies and assessments as required, the development of the Kosovo Programming Framework (KPF) as well as FAO contribution to the United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework (UNSDSF), the Joint Work Plans for its implementation and any other UN joint initiative;
- Support and participate in the identification, formulation and preparation of programme and project proposals;
- Support liaison and collaboration with donor(s) and with institutional and non-institutional partners concerned with FAO Programme in Kosovo, including private sector, NGOs, academia and civil society;
- Participate in the UNKT coordination meetings, working groups, reviews and consultations, as required by the Local Team Leader for the development and implementation of the FAO Programme in Kosovo;
- Support FAO project office in Kosovo for a successful implementation of projects activities;
- Support the preparation of briefs and updates to FAO Management.

If you are aged 18 or older, have completed secondary school education, you are fluent in English as well as in Albanian and/or Serbian and have relevant working or research experience in one of the fields of the Organization, please send your application to the following link:

https://jobs.fao.org/careersection/fao_external/jobdetail.ftl?job=2100192&tz=GMT%2B02%3A00&tzname=Europe%2FBerlin and send an e-mail message to ardiana.hamiti@fao.org informing that you have submitted your application for a volunteer assignment with FAO Pristina. All applications will be reviewed and only qualified applicants will be directly contacted for interviews by the hiring office and contacted again, if selected.